THE URBANETTE

DEDICATION

Why do we dedicate the URBANETTE to you?

BECAUSE you came THRU
THESE DOORS at dawn,
and didn't leave til dark, giving your day to youth--at times not a very rewarding occupation.

BECAUSE YOU WERE THERE
when we needed you
most, we give to you
the most precious gift
we have to offer . . . the dedication of years
of work, the years
of memories.

Mrs. Virginia Bozarth, we dedicate our book to you.

URBANETTE STAFF

The Urbanette Staff would like to thank all those who have helped in making our annual a success.

We would like to tell some of the things that we do. The staff is selected by the entire class at the first of the year. We then pick out our annual. The editors are to get the material together and compose the book. The business manager is to direct the selling of the ads and the annuals.

This is our first year for a summer edition. We have enjoyed our graduation and trip, and hope you are pleased with our pictures.

Our annual will be later than usual, but since it is presented by the Seniors, we would like to show more of our activities.

BEST WISHES AND LUCK TO ALL FUTURE URBANETTE STAFF MEMBERS

CLASS HISTORY

In August of 1948 we accepted an invitation to a Beatnik party sponsored by Urbana High School under the direction of Mrs. Maxine Miller. The cats who accepted the invitation were Larry Banghart, Jerry Capes, Dean Cripe, Bonita Graft, Billy Gurtner, Judith Hairrell, Davetta Holycross, Kay Knee, Joan Koch, Jimmy Lefforge, Bill Maurer, Pat McLaughlin, Richard Miller, Larry Moore, John Plasturer, Thomas Reisner, Sally Rife, Virginia Riley, Lowell Ringel, Bette Rosen, Sandra Schnepp, Wayne Stouffer, Charles Wertenberger, Donnie Cole, Samuel Kiger, Ronnie Warren, Forrest Price, Alan Long, David Weaver, and John Wilcox. A few of the cats thought the party was too dead, so Larry Moore, Donnie Cole, John Plasturer, Ronnie Warren, Larry Banghart, Richard Miller, Virginia Riley, and Alan Long departed.

Mrs. Hardman played the Bongos for us to dance through the second grade. Those who decided to take an extra part in the dance were Terry Lloyd, Bettie Blevins, Roberta Hammonds, Gloria Jester, and Arlene Antrim.

During the third and fourth grades, Mrs. Griffiths stopped the music to teach the group how to recite poetry. Those joining were Roscoe Bitzel, Judy Burton, Betty Laferney, Tom Eads, and Buddy Staggs. The cats who thought that poetry was not for them were Lowell Ringel, Richard Price, and Thomas Reisner.

Our fifth and sixth grades were spent trying to improve our lingua under the direction of Mr. Walter Weck. Those who joined to improve their voice were Sharon Bowman, Lucille Robinson, Barbara McDaniel, David Miller, Danny Knee, and Larry Finnegan. The cats who decided they couldn't take this jazz were Charles Wertenberger, Lucille Robinson, and Barbara McDaniel.

Although Urbana by this time was very dull, we set out to explore Francis Slocum with Mr. Clarence Bozarth. It was our eighth grade when Mrs. Antrim explained to us that we should by all means explore the forest called Salamonie. Charlotte Yeater, Pansy Foraker, Sonja Van DeGrift, Beverly Reed, Wanda Kellems, John Gilchrist, and Sharon Tyner picked up our tracks and joined the party. The students who were lost on the two trails were Charlotte Yeater, David Miller, Pansy Foraker, Sonja Van DeGrift, and John Gilchrist.

Our high school days were finally here, so to celebrate, our cats took off for Chicago in hopes of some excitement. In the museum we found Everett Cooper and Faye Francis looking for a real grand time, but Everett Cooper and Bettie Blevins coundn't keep up with us in the Planatorium. To add to our fun, Arlene had a party during the tenth grade. Mickey Eubank, Thurman Eubanks, and Larry Karns joined us to recite some of their poetry. During the evening, Beverly Reed, Larry Karns, Faye Francis, Mickey Eubank, and Thurman Eubank decided that the night was growing old and left early. By this time we needed a fancy dinner with the same old gang. Jerry Capes decided the jazz was too much, so he rodded out. During our Senior year, we all agreed that this city is too dead, so off to New York went Arlene Antrim, Sharon Bowman, Tom Eads, Larry Finnegan, Bonita Graft, Davetta Holycross, Wanda Kellems, Joan Koch, Danny Knee, Kay Knee, Bill Maurer, Pat McLaughlin, Terry Lloyd, Wayne Stouffer, Bette Rosen, Sharon Tyner, John Wilcox, and Patti Wentzel.
